INVITATION

Warm Greetings

The Geetanjali College & School of Nursing has the immense pleasure of inviting you to the upcoming National Conference on "Innovations in Clinical Specialties: Pioneering Approaches & Future Horizons," which is going to be held on 20th January, 2024 at Geetanjali University, Udaipur (Raj).

The Geetanjali University is one of the leading universities in Southern Rajasthan started with Nursing Courses in the year 2007. The institute is committed to providing quality education to more than 750 Students in all Nursing Courses including GNM, B.Sc.(N), P.B.B.Sc.(N), M.Sc.(N) & Ph.D. The vision is focused mainly on research activities and skill development in the midst of technological advancements in health care.

In addition to our Academic Programs, the institute regularly conducts workshops, seminars and in-service education programs to update the knowledge & skills of the students, faculties and practicing nurses. Innovations can open opportunity for nurses to shape the future in health care delivery and education system which is the need of the hour.

With regards,
